

Humankind was no longer tied to the earth for the first time in history.

reaching somewhere farther

The dream of humankind...

We once stood on the faraway moon

looking up at our home earth like this

We left our footsteps at the moon...

All the above would never come true without the man who did not give up his dream since his youth at any time

爲時尚早 Too Early

Chapter 7 is my tribute to Shenliu, the author of Lazurite Night

這首歌有感：想，向《琉璃瓦》作者 深風 敬啟

TVB Shenliu passed away on his death among his manuscripts from not having suitable objection in time, at some day around 2010 New Year (exact time unknown)
